

Figure S3. Genome-wide detection of selective sweeps in four major cultivated rice subgroups based on the relationship between nucleotide diversity and divergence. The size of the genomic windows is 20 Kb and colored heat map contours indicate the density of points.